Thorn Clarke Shotfire Quartage 2006
93 Rating ★★★★★

There is good concentration of violets on the nose with some lifted perfume from the petit verdot. The palate is rich, ripe and medium to full bodied. The wine is bursting with flavours of blackcurrant, plums and christmas pudding and shows great balance with the supporting spicy oak adding complexity and character. The wine has great vibrancy and poise which are evident on the long seamless finish.

93 Rating ★★★★★

The palate shows mineral like acidity balanced by green apple and lime like fruit flavours. The finish is crisp and clean with just a touch of residual sugar adding length. Great drinking now but it will develop lovely toasty bottle age characters if cellared.

Sandalford Protege Premium Dry White 2006
90 Rating ★★★★★

This wine has a gorgeous palate both refreshing and balanced. The melon flavours are packed in tight and intermingling with the sauvignon blanc and semillon nuances as seen on the nose. Zingy acidity and a long finish make this a great drinking style of wine. This is a wine to be served well chilled and made in a drink now mode.

Grant Burge Filsel Barossa Shiraz 2005
94 Rating ★★★★★

This wine has complex aromas of dark chocolate, rich spices and ripe raspberries plus vanilla bean and a touch of mint. The palate exhibits flavours of raspberry, black plum and kirsch combined with toasted oak. The wine is dense and complex; has long chewy tannins and a velvety intensity of flavours that show excellent persistence and length.
